ABOUT US...

3Pillars Project provides sports-based mentoring to inspire, challenge and empower young men within the criminal justice system. They start their journey with us whilst in prison; and through our Rugby Academy they become part of a team, boosting their physical, mental and emotional health on and off the playing field. We work with every young man as an individual, to their time frame, whether this is for months or years, to help them resettle into the community and develop a sense of belonging. Through mentoring and helping them to gain qualifications, training and employment opportunities, our apprentices are able to build a better future whilst in prison and beyond.

WELCOME FROM 3PILLARS CEO

MIKE CROFTS

This is 3Pillars Projects' fifth year as a registered charity. What an adventure it has been. Initially conceived as an idea during a visit to Feltham Young Offenders Institution (YOI) in 2015, we were initially a social enterprise and did not become a charity until 2018. The decision has been a great success, despite challenges which all start ups face, we have managed to overcome them and arrive at where we are now. I hope you will join us in enjoying this success.

Our Board and the team have both expanded this year, we welcome William Mackinlay as Chair of Trustees, as well as Tom Smallbone and Helen Whitehouse OBE. All three bring fantastic and diverse experience to the organisation. I am also delighted that we have grown our delivery team, with new Regional Coordinators in London and the Midlands and a number of additional coaches. We've had ongoing attention from the media, which even included us featuring our work with Red Bull.

Outreach and engagement with prison staff has allowed us to re-establish fixed delivery in a number of sites, with delivery taking place at Cookham Wood and Feltham YOI's HMPs Nottingham, High Down and Dovegate, as well as Open Prisons that will enable our post release community delivery programme at Sudbury and Standford Hill. We are also delivering weekly community sports sessions to hundreds of young people a year. The cross site delivery will allow us to further embolden our delivery of the GAMEPLAN pathway.

Looking out at the Sport for development space, it has transformed over the past few years. Where there were few people interested in supporting those in custody when 3Pillars started, there is now a real shift in support from funders and corporate partners alike. We are thankful to a number of partners over the past year, in particular Cumming Group and Clearscore, as well as funders and new large supporters; Lloyds Bank Foundation, the National Lottery, Triangle Trust, Peter Harrison and the Nottinghamshire Police & Crime Commissioner who have all patiently supported the expansion of our work. Thank you to each of you who continues to support us in a number of ways, including those Big Give supporters amongst you, those who have hosted and attended events and the champions of our work who are always cheerleading for us.

Over the next 3 to 5 years we will roll out the strategic growth and development of our organisation. We have a good and stable board, a delivery team of dedicated people and the clarity of vision to really deliver change in the lives of young people in custody.

Thank you for your support.

LETTER FROM THE TRUSTEES

A YEAR
IN REVIEW

CHAIR OF TRUSTEES: WILLIAM MACKINLAY

My first direct experience of the 3Pillars team was an interview. Late one Spring afternoon, a team from South Square chambers in Gray's Inn, two commercial barristers, one senior member of staff, and me, prepared to meet a candidate from the 3Pillars programme. He had recently left prison and we were planning to offer him two weeks of paid work experience in our Chambers to help him build up his CV and eventually find a full-time job. The first stage of the process was this interview. Our team were a bit nervous - this was some distance beyond our comfort zone.

The candidate arrived with his probation officer, and with Mike, the CEO of 3Pillars. He was in his late twenties and had been out of prison for two weeks after completing his second sentence. We listened intently to his story, the extremely challenging circumstances which led him down the path to prison, and to re-offending almost immediately after he had completed his first prison sentence. He told us about his contact with 3Pillars and how he came to be here with us, interviewing for a job at a commercial barristers' chambers.

I couldn't believe that this young man, with so much promise, so much passion, and so much positive energy, had already spent so many years of his life in prison. My team from South Square were bowled over by the experience and we were so impressed with the candidate, and the support that he had received from 3Pillars, we agreed immediately that he should come and work for us.

That was the beginning of my journey with the charity. It was also the moment the scales fell away from my eyes and I saw how the justice system was failing so many young men, in their prime, who had so much to offer their communities and society as a whole.

I'm delighted and honoured to have been invited to join the board of 3Pillars. We are a small but extremely focused charity that is changing the prospects and the lives of young men coming out of prison. I couldn't take on this role without the support of my work colleagues, and I'm extremely grateful for the ongoing assistance provided to me and to 3Pillars by the barristers and the staff at South Square. I'm also thrilled to introduce you to the newest members of the trustee board;

HELEN WHITEHOUSE

A former Deputy Director in the Ministry of Justice said: "3Pillars makes a huge and tangible impact to the people it supports, I'm really pleased to be joining the charity and to play a part in its further growth in the coming years so we can help more people to improve their life chances".

TOM SMALLBONE

Tom played in the Premiership for London Irish and won the U20 World Championship with England, he said "Rugby has given me so much. By joining 3Pillars I can give something back to the young people that the charity works with and the wider rugby community".

AN EVENING WITH JOHN MCAVOY...

It was an honour to have John come relive his story at our event in partnership with ClearScore in November. Johns story from how he found rowing in prison to becoming a sponsored Nike Athlete is incredible and his journey has changed not only the course of his life but countless others.

It was a truly captivating and motivational evening. Thank you John.

IN CUSTODY DELIVERY:

Lewis has been in the segregation unit for the past 4 months and said "Being part of the Rugby Academy allows me to stay stable in an unstable environment."

Mick was involved in our Rugby Academy in September 2022, having never played rugby or watched a rugby match previously. He mentioned in week one that he had not left his wing for several weeks and was not very active. He had seen the 3Pillars Rugby Academy advertised on his unit and signed up as he believed it would help him to start being active again, be more social and get him out of his cell.

On completing the programme Mick said:

"I'm so glad I did the Rugby Academy, it brought me out of my comfort zone, allowed me to meet new people and has given me a new lease of life. I will definitely be looking for a Rugby team when I go home."

"Attending the Rugby Academy I forgot where I was temporarily, I didn't feel like I was in prison, it felt like being part of a fun sports camp with your friends, learning how to be a team and working with some great coaches and mentors."

-YOI Rugby Academy Participant

OUR COMMUNITY SESSIONS:

'James has seen a massive change in his life, since attending the community sessions. James said the community sessions are now part of his healthy lifestyle, it has essentially helped him to "swap one bad addiction for a good addiction"

'Linda said 'the main positive takeaway from these sessions is the social aspect, as everyone who attends is very friendly and they build up rapport over time as it is the same individuals who go to the sessions nearly every week.

"It stands as a good and positive distraction from everyday life and allows people to focus on their mind, body and soul"

"Every week I come to these sessions and leave feeling at peace with the world. I'm grateful for this community, it has improved my mental health massively".

Ethnicity

Gender

Although we predominately work with young men in custody, our community sessions are open to anyone and as a result the aim is to be as inclusive and diverse as we can. As reflected in our gender breakdown of our sessions.

Age

The majority of our GAMEPLAN programmes are aimed at young men, but as we continue to support them for however long they may need we can see that our mentoring reaches all ages. Guidance and support is always offered to those in need and can be formal or informal support.

Disabilities

We prioritise providing high quality service, to do this we strongly encourage our team to further their cultural competence in order to best understand, appreciate and interact with people from all cultures, belief systems and backgrounds. We are privileged to be able to work with people from all walks of life, this is reflected in the diverse range of people who take part in our programmes.
